

Tribly Dsouza

E: 16values@gmail.com | T: +61 415 32 99 57 | L: <https://au.linkedin.com/in/triblydsouza>

Visa: Australian PR Visa (Subclass 190) valid till 30th July 2020

Hello

I am writing to apply for the role advertised by your organisation.

I am a solution minded and result oriented person with diverse and strong 12 years of experience across the gamut of Business, Marketing and Human Resources. I am currently working as a Margin and Pricing Professional with Officeworks. The key objective of this role is to develop smart pricing strategies and maximize profits in line with the Every Day Lower Prices promise of Officeworks across the B2B channel. I have also worked extensively in a Product Marketing role which has given me an in depth understanding to manage sustainable profitable business growth and how to leverage Sales, Finance, Supply chain and R&D. I have a detailed understanding of all nuances of product life cycle management, marketing strategies and new product management. The marketing role was offered to me on observing my passion towards work, my ability to execute new and challenging tasks with finesse, my potential and my high performance in the HR Business Partner role.

Given this background about me, I would like to express my candidature to this role which will allow me to provide my knowledge and expertise to add more value to your organization and enhance my learning

I have a proven track record of exemplary performance in all my roles and have been amongst the Top Talent of the organization. I uphold the values of the organization I work for and practice intense work ethics. I believe that I possess positive inter personal skills which help to build and maintain respectful relations across and beyond the organization. I am a proactive person and strive to do the best in my work by being thorough, focused and outcome oriented and am comfortable working with all personality types.

I believe we both can benefit with my association with your organization in terms of the work experience and credentials I possess and I would love the opportunity to work with your organization and deliver my best. My resume is attached for your kind consideration and I look forward to being able to discuss this with you further.

Yours sincerely,
Tribly Dsouza